college education.
              After that I would like to work at a good company for 2 years, which will be able to help me achieve my goals, and also help increase my experience in various domains and gain expertise in them.
              After that I would want to pursue higher education (M.Tech) from a well reputed institutuion in the field of Computer Science. So, this is my 5 year plan for the moment.
              After completing my Higher Education I hope to see myself working at a good position in a well-reuted organization.
